

Spouse or ESGP<sup>1</sup> Consent Rescission

TO RESCIND CONSENT OF DESIGNATION OF PRIMARY BENEFICIARY OTHER THAN A SPOUSE OR ESGP

If you are married and your spouse or ESGP consented to waive their rights as a sole primary beneficiary for the ELCA Retirement Plan and now wishes to rescind their decision, their rights may be reinstated by filling in the information below. This new designation will not become effective until Portico receives this form with your spouse or ESGP's notarized signature. As of the date notarized, your spouse or ESGP will become the sole primary beneficiary. Your contingent beneficiary designations will remain unchanged.

B Spousal Consent Rescission

I understand I will become a sole primary beneficiary for the ELCA Retirement Plan. I understand that by signing this consent rescission I will be reinstated as a sole primary beneficiary and the previous primary beneficiary designation will cease to be beneficiary(ies). I will be paid benefits under the plan upon my spouse's death as of the date my signature below was notarized. The contingent beneficiary designations will remain unchanged.

This consent will not become effective until Portico Benefit Services receives the spouse or ESGP's notarized signature.
